

Soultourist

The Soultourist boat is crewed by Tobi Foster, Ron Shiller, Philippe Wüger (Thabo) and Pascal Dubach (Big Clap).

The four Soultourist members met while DJing and hanging out at parties realizing that their cases were packed with nearly the same records and that they shared a common musical vision. They wanted to combine their musical skills to join forces and so they formed Soultourist in 2004: A collective which aims for a special fresh sound and has its own and very personal attitude towards house music or music in general.

Soultourist's first 12" was released on Jazzanova's renowned label Sonar Kollektiv, followed by various releases on their own label Drumpoet Community, which was founded by Alex Dallas, Ron Shiller & Tobi Foster in 2006 and is the home of artists like Quarion, Manuel Tur & Dplay, Sascha Dive, Kawabata and The Lost Men. The EPs of Soultourist have received great support from DJs like Laurent Garnier, Jimpster, The Revenge, Osunlade, Agnès and the Mountain People. And with various productions in the pipeline the story has just begun.

Besides producing for the Soultourist collective, Foster, Thabo and Big Clap each also run their own solo projects, while producer Ron Shiller is DJing in clubs such as the Zukunft, Cabaret and the Hive in Zürich as well as on various international gigs (Panoramabar – Berlin, Rex – Paris, Registratur – Munich, Goa - Madrid) to represent the distinguished sound of Soultourist. For the monthly residency of Ron Shiller and Alex Dallas at the Zukunft, the two invite people like Theo Parrish, Maurice Fulton, Pepe Bradock and many other great music lovers to celebrate the good good.

Regardless to any categorisation - the essence and the aim remains to release euphoric, touching and emotional music for open-minded peeps.
